

On the Job Phases

On the Job phases are essential to becoming an Effective Adult Leader in Scouting. They are skills you learn in your local scouting environment, guided by your Team Leader or other training mentor (such as Group Leader or District Leader).

They are located in the Scouts NSW online training portal at training.scouts.com.au and can be accessed via the link on the main page – Highlighted below:

Once all the “I” Statements have been completed, you will be able to submit your On the Job Phase for verification.

Before submitting make sure to review the details for the team leader the verification will be sent to. If these are correct, go ahead and submit.

If not, you can request a change of Team Leader using the appropriate buttons at the top of the On the Job Phase screen.

Need a manually selected Team Leader?

Team Leaders are normally derived from the organisation hierarchy, but sometimes there are reasons that a different Team Leader is better equipped to support your training.

Members with multiple appointments may also find that the wrong person has been selected as their Team Leader.

Do I need to do all 3 On The Job's?

No. Most people will only complete 2 during their Scouting Career - On The Job Youth Program Leader or Program Support Leader to receive their Certificate of Proficiency and On The Job Scouting Leadership to receive their Wood Badge.

If at any time you move from a Youth Program Leader role to Program Support Leader role or vice versa you will need to complete all On the Job, On Demand and Practical Training that you have not yet done in the other Training Pathway.

I'm a Team Leader or Next-level-up Team Leader – What do I need to do?

You should receive an email when a learner in your team completes an OTJ Phase.

Upon receipt of this email, simply click on the “Review Completed Phase” button in the email.

It will take you to training.scouts.com.au, then simply log in, and you will see which area you need to Approve or Reject (with a suitable guidance note for the learner).

Before verifying, check the member details at the top of the screen to ensure you are the correct Team Leader or Next-Level-Up Team Leader for the trainee.
(If you do not think you are the correct Team Leader, you can request to have this changed by clicking on the I am not the Team Leader button and following the prompts.)

To verify an On the Job Phase, carefully read through each I statement and remark, ensuring the remark has given enough detail on how the trainee believes they have achieved this I Statement.

Once you have completed this, you can mark the phase as Approved or Rejected.

If you mark the phase as Rejected, you will be required to provide a reason which will be sent to the trainee. The trainee will then need to review your remarks and resubmit the phase for verification.

A screenshot of a "Phase Rejected" dialog box. The title bar is dark blue with the text "Phase Rejected" and a close button (X). The main content area has a light gray background and contains the text: "Please state the reason you are rejecting this On the Job Phase submission and actions that the trainee should complete before resubmitting. Note that the reason will be included in an advice emailed to the Trainee." Below this is a label "Rejected reason*" followed by a large, empty text input field. At the bottom of the dialog, there are two buttons: "Close" and "Submit".

We ask that you verify or reject within 14 days. That will certainly alleviate any reminder emails arriving in your inbox.
